

Project “Implementation of the Industrial Emissions Directive in Serbia”

Biogas production – sustainable solution for treatment of organic waste

Workshop for farm and food processing operators and representatives of local self-governments

October 1, 2020

Time	Agenda
10.50 – 11.00	Signing into Zoom
11.00 – 11.10	Industrial Emissions Directive and biogas production, opportunities, environmental benefits and technical solutions (Introduction to the workshop) Ida Reuterswärd, First Secretary, The Embassy of Sweden in Belgrade Bojana Vukadinović, project manager IED Serbia Aleksandar Ćosović, project LLTE for IPPC farms, IED Serbia
11.10 - 11.30	Possibilities for biogas production and utilization in Serbia (Legal framework and the available subsidies for biogas production) Slobodan Cvetković, Ministry of Environmental Protection of the Republic of Serbia
11.30 – 11.45	Successful examples of investments on biogas production in Serbia (UNDP/GEF supporting program, results and performances) Maja Matejić, UNDP Serbia
11.45 - 12.00	Biogas and energy production on a farm (Common practices, requirements and challenges for the operators) Vladan Divljak, Energo-Orahovo d.o.o.
12.00 - 12.15	Permitting of an IPPC farm with biogas plant (Examples and experiences from farms in Croatia) Robert Spajić, international expert, IED Serbia
12.15 - 12.30	Discussion (Q &amp; A)